- ✓ He likes music of all genres, going for walks, playing and watching football, and going out in his car.
- ✓ He is very engaging with lots of energy.

This young man requires a consistent approach from his team, in terms of support and structure to allow him to develop and benefit from a wide range of positive life experiences and to reduce situations that might bring about feelings of anxiety whereby this young man can communicate using behaviour that can challenge the team.

Support is provided 24/7 and the shift patterns are as follow:
